Assumption of Risk

The dog Owner acknowledges and understands that boarding a dog inherently involves certain risks, including but not limited to injury, illness, stress, or behavioral changes that may arise from being in a new environment or interacting with other animals. Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort has taken all reasonable steps to ensure the safety and wellbeing of all pets under its care, but cannot guarantee that incidents will not occur.

The dog Owner agrees to assume all risks associated with boarding their dog at Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort, including any injuries or health issues that may arise. This includes exposure to common canine illnesses, stress-related conditions, or injuries caused by the dog's behavior or interaction with other animals. Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort will not be held liable for any injuries or health problems that are reasonably considered inherent risks of dog boarding.

By signing this Agreement, the dog Owner confirms that they understand the risks involved in boarding their dog and accepts full responsibility for any potential health issues or accidents that may occur.

Waiver of Liability

The Owner hereby releases Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort, its owners, employees, and affiliates from any and all liability for injuries, illnesses, or accidents that occur during the dog's stay. This waiver applies to all forms of injury or damage, including those resulting from the dog's interaction with other animals, environmental factors, or activities that are part of the boarding service.

Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort will take every reasonable precaution to minimize risks, but the dog Owner acknowledges that some incidents may be beyond the control of the Facility. The Owner agrees that normal risks associated with boarding, including minor injuries or illnesses, are accepted as part of this Agreement.

The Owner further agrees that the Facility will not be responsible for any pre-existing conditions, chronic health issues, or behavioral problems that worsen during the dog's stay.

Emergency Veterinary Care

In the event of a medical emergency, Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort will make every effort to contact the dog Owner or the designated emergency contact. If the Owner cannot be reached, Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort is authorized to seek veterinary care at the nearest available clinic. The Owner agrees to be fully responsible for all veterinary costs, including examination fees, treatment, and medications, regardless of the outcome of the medical intervention.

The Owner acknowledges that Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort is not liable for the results of veterinary care, and decisions made regarding the dog's health will be in the best interest of the animal. The Facility will not be held responsible for any negative outcomes arising from veterinary decisions, treatment delays, or lack of immediate contact with the Owner.

Vaccination Requirements

The Owner agrees to provide documentation proving that their dog is up-to-date on all required vaccinations, including rabies, distemper, parvovirus, and bordetella (kennel cough). Failure to provide valid vaccination records will result in refusal of boarding services, and Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort will not be held responsible for any delays or cancellations caused by incomplete vaccination documentation.

While Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort takes steps to ensure that all boarded dogs are vaccinated, the Owner acknowledges that no vaccination guarantees complete protection. The Facility cannot be held responsible for any illness contracted by the dog during their stay, despite being vaccinated.

The Owner understands that providing complete and accurate vaccination records is their responsibility, and any misrepresentation or omission of health information may lead to additional risks.

Behavior and Temperament Requirements

The Owner certifies that their dog has no history of aggressive behavior towards people or other animals and is safe to be in a boarding environment with other dogs. Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort reserves the right to remove the dog from group activities or contact the Owner for immediate pick-up if the dog exhibits aggression, anxiety, or dangerous behavior during its stay.

Any damages, injuries, or incidents caused by the dog's behavior, whether towards other dogs, staff, or property, will be the responsibility of the Owner. The Facility will take all reasonable precautions to ensure the safety of the dog and others, but cannot guarantee that behavioral issues will not arise.

The Owner is responsible for informing Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort of any known behavioral issues or temperament concerns before boarding to prevent possible incidents.

Owner's Responsibilities

The Owner is responsible for providing accurate and complete information about the dog's medical history, dietary needs, and any behavioral issues that may affect the safety or wellbeing of the dog, staff, or other animals. Failure to disclose critical information may result in increased risk to the dog and others in Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort.

The Owner must supply sufficient food, medications, and any special care instructions for the duration of the dog's stay. If the Owner fails to provide adequate supplies, the Facility may purchase necessary items, and the Owner agrees to reimburse Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort for any expenses incurred.

By signing this Agreement, the Owner confirms that all information provided about the dog is accurate and up to date, and they assume responsibility for any consequences arising from incorrect or incomplete information.

Personal Property

The Owner may provide personal items for the dog's comfort during its stay, such as toys, bedding, or blankets. The Facility will make reasonable efforts to care for and return these items in the condition they were brought in, but it does not guarantee their safety or condition. Personal items may be lost, damaged, or destroyed during the dog's stay due to the nature of the boarding environment.

The Owner agrees that Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort will not be held liable for any damage or loss of personal property. This includes situations where the dog may chew, soil, or destroy the items, or where other dogs may access and damage these items. Bestland Dog Boarding and Pet Resort reserves the right to limit or refuse personal belongings if they are deemed unsafe or unsuitable for boarding.

If personal items are lost or damaged, the Facility is not responsible for replacement or reimbursement, and the Owner agrees to this condition before providing any items for the dog's stay
